

Hilarious Homophones!

To answer these riddles, you need to know your homophones. Remember that homophones are words that have the same sound but different spellings and meanings, such as there/their/they're. Have fun answering these riddles. Some are old, some are new. How many can you solve?

1. Why did the bread have holes?
2. What kind of fruit grows on power lines?
3. Why is homework like the water on the lawn in the morning?
4. What cake do baseball players like best?
5. How can you make an apple into another fruit?
6. Why couldn't the pony talk?
7. How do you catch a fairy?
8. How do you paint a rabbit?
9. What advice did one give bee give to another bee?
10. What's the scariest lake in which to swim?
11. What vegetable is essential to good music?
12. What's a chicken's favorite thing to do at a basketball game?