

Multiple-Meaning Mania

To solve these riddles, you'll need to use words that have more than one meaning. For example, a story can mean a legend or news account, or it can mean the level of a building. The first joke uses this word.

1. How can you make a library bigger?
2. What kind of instruments do all animals have inside of them?
3. When do bad days usually fall apart?
4. When do kids get the most exercise?
5. What cannot run although it has three feet?
6. Why was the music teacher so upset?
7. If a man gives fifteen cents to one of his sons, and a dime to another, what time is it?
8. What's the quickest way to make a point in your writing?
9. What is the fruit of history?
10. Where were the first donuts fried?
11. When do artists paint the best oceans?
12. What's a prisoner's favorite punctuation mark?
13. What never asks questions but is often answered?
14. What animals are well-educated?
15. Who is a sound sleeper?
16. What did the mountain say to the earthquake?
17. What do gingerbread men put on their beds?
18. Where do you find the biggest spiders?
19. How do you make an egg roll?
20. How do dog catchers get paid?