

Sixth Grade Spelling Sentences for Dictation

from www.Spelling-Words-Well.com

The underlined words appear on our list of 300 sixth grade spelling words.

1. I hate to complain, but this hamburger tastes bad.
2. Were you following the directions when you made it?
3. Perhaps there is some unusual vegetable in it.
4. Did you say there are no tomatoes in it?
5. Because you had a coupon for free snails doesn't mean you should put the creatures in my food!

6. After graduation, I'd like to run for governor of my state.
7. Some people become lawyers first, but not me.
8. I have a great vision for everyone's happiness.
9. I would strive to unite people with different ideas.
10. I am positive I could make a difference, and that you would support me!

11. I planned to help my dad paint the ceiling of our home's entrance.
12. But first we had to purchase two gallons of paint.
13. It was a remarkable trip to the home improvement store.
14. We had never seen such a variety of paint colors on the shelves.
15. The decision was such a struggle for us that we chose to wait until next year to paint!

16. I've always been jealous of penguins.
17. They are allowed to play outside, no matter the temperature.
18. They do not get injuries or headaches.
19. They live in communities where there are no chores or no homework.
20. Of course, there are also no remotes, telephones or televisions!

